The dining area is perfect for breakfast with view!

Relax in the sunny afternoon on this terrace.

A few minute walk will bring you to the famous pebble beach Bistrica, which also has a natural shade.

To the west there are over 20 small bays with pebble beaches (small white stones). You can find a bay where you can enjoy the peace and quiet even in summer days, when there are the most tourists.

Many bays are surrounded with pinewoods which means you can enjoy in the pleasant shadow a few hours during the day.

Sutivan town is known as "bike friendly" and offers several biking trails for discovering the islands beauties.

Zlatni Rat, famed beach in Bol on the southern side of the island, is the best known and the most beautiful beach in Croatia.

The island is also known for its culinary specialties such as the famous Brac lamb, which is served almost everywhere.

The word wine is written big on Brac. And since Plavac mali, Croatian indigenous sort, has been planted on Brac for centuries, today these grapes are replanted in bigger quantities, along with other sorts like Posip, Vugava, Chardonnay, and Merlot.

Bol town is the right address for kite boarders and windsurf enthusiasts!

The whole Brac Island has fabulous off-roads for bicycling with amazing views!

Vidova mountain above Bol town is ideal for hiking - 1,5 hours of climbing and you will be rewarded with spectacular views

*In the evening go for a walk to the
the center of Sutivan

Spoil yourself with a glass of fantastic local wine!

One of the best part of holidays - evening dinners!

Healthy, delicious local food is based on Mediterranean cuisine: fish, octopus, gamberas and lobsters.
